What we will do

When you contact Woolworths Customer Care, we will aim to resolve your issue or enquiry during that first call as our consultants have the training and authority to deal with most issues and enquiries. Once you have accepted the proposed resolution, we will work to implement it as quickly as possible.

If for whatever reason your issue cannot be resolved during the first call, for example, if we need to investigate the matter further, we will then agree on a timeframe for absolute resolution. In most circumstances, this will be within 15 working days of you first raising the issue with us. Timeframes will be agreed with you during that first call or within two days of first speaking with you.

If you write to us with your issue or enquiry via facsimile, email or mail, we will acknowledge your letter by phone or in writing, if you request, within two working days of receiving your letter.

If your matter is urgent

If you feel your complaint is urgent, please tell us as soon as possible via telephone. We will refer your case for investigation by an appropriate senior manager and provide a response to your complaint within two business days.

Urgent complaints differ from regular complaints in that they are referred to an appropriate level of senior management significantly earlier and are treated with higher priority than normal complaints.

We will contact you directly to advise and discuss a new timeframe in the event that a resolution may fall outside these timeframes.

We consider a complaint urgent when it concerns any of the following:

- You have asked to be assessed or have been approved for financial hardship assistance and you believe your issue directly contributes to or worsens that hardship.
- Your issue is about a disconnection that's about to happen, or a disconnection that has happened in error.
- Your issue is about a service or situation that is dangerous to you or others.

Progress updates

While your issue is being investigated, we will provide regular updates on the progress of enquiries, so that you're kept informed of how everything is being addressed.

You can enquire about its progress at any time. You'll be assigned a reference number when you first call or write to us, which you can quote when enquiring about your issue.

Escalating complaints within Woolworths Mobile

If you aren't satisfied with the resolution or investigation of your complaint, you can ask to be referred to the next level of management, such as a supervisor. We will continue to try and resolve your issue as soon as possible and within timeframes agreed with you which, in most circumstances, will be within 15 working days of you having notified us that you're not satisfied.

If for any reason you're still dissatisfied with the way your complaint has been handled, you can ask to be referred to a more senior person, such as a manager. This person will deal with you personally and discuss the resolutions you've been offered.

Advising of outcomes

Woolworths Customer Care will advise you by phone of the outcome of your complaint as soon as a resolution is complete. If you would like to be advised in writing of the outcome of your complaint, please let us know. We can advise you in writing via email, facsimile or mail.

Taking complaints outside Woolworths Mobile

We expect that our Woolworths Customer Care team will successfully resolve the issues you raise as we aim to provide the most straightforward, efficient and effective complaint resolution process. However, if you're not satisfied with the way your complaint has been handled and would like an external body to review your complaint, you can contact the following regulatory bodies:

1. The Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (TIO). The TIO is an office of last resort, which recommends that you first try and resolve the issue with your telecommunications service provider. The TIO can be contacted on 1800 062 058 or by writing to TIO, PO Box 276, Collins Street West, Melbourne, Victoria 8007; and
2. For general telecommunications issues that are not within the TIO's authority, you can also contact the Australian Communications & Media Authority or the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission.
